

How to Pay SEVIS Fee

Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS) Fee

Student visa applicants must pay a $200 SEVIS fee before their visa interview. The SEVIS fee can be paid in Cameroon one of two ways:

1. National Financial Credit (NFC) - SEVIS fees can be paid at the following NFC bank branches:

- NFC Bank Yaounde 1 (Located at Carrefour Warda)
- NFC Bank Yaounde (Hippodrome at hotel de ville)
- NFC Bank Buea (Downtown Molyko)
- NFC Bank Bamenda (Commercial Avenue)

Please bring the form I-20 and a valid national identity card. Two to three days after payment, the student can verify payment of the SEVIS fee and print a receipt at www.fmjfee.com.

OR

2. Western Union Quick Pay™ – To find the nearest Western Union location go to <http://www.payment-solutions.com/agent.asp> and select “CAMEROON” from the Country drop down menu, and select “Quick Pay” for Product.

Please bring the form I-20. For step-by-step directions and instructions on how to fill out the Western Union Quick Pay Form, please visit http://www.ice.gov/sevis/i901/wu_instr.htm. Two to three days after payment, the student can verify payment of the SEVIS fee and print a receipt at www.fmjfee.com.
